Hon. M.C. Jain, J.

Heard Sri Manoj Tewari, learned counsel for the petitioner and Sri Ranjit Saxena, learned counsel for the respondents nos. 2 to 6.

This petition has been filed by the petitioner challenging the order dated 3.10.2001 by which the petitioner has been required to go back to Uttar Pradesh. The petitioner is the Assistant Engineer with Uttar Pradesh Power Corporation and was on deputation in Uttaranchal Power Corporation from 1.4.2001. Earlier, the petitioner expressed his willingness to go back to U.P., but he was not relieved. When he was not relieved he got his children admitted in the schools and children are taking education here in Uttaranchal. By the impugned order in the midst of education session, the petitioner has been repatriated.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has no objection in his repatriation to Uttar Pradesh, but he may be permitted to stay upto 31.03.2001 i.e. till the completion of the education of his children. We find force in this submission of the leaned counsel for the petitioner. Therefore, it is provided that the impugned repatriation order shall be given effect to on 1.4.2002.

The petition is disposed of finally accordingly.
